Miss Smith the daughter of lawyer James A. Smith returned from Fortress Monroe Monday morning.

Mr. William Dixon was defeated for the assessorship.

I have relieved my deputy who is a white man, of carrying my money to the bank and carry it myself. Thus I get down to my size. C. H. J. T.

"What does I know about the office I have a white man to do the business for me I carry the money to the bank which relieves my deputy. This is the first reform I have made in the recorders office." C. H. J. T.

"The old man eloquent went on my bond and he did more to insure my confirmation than all the negroes combined, of course I shall allow him to run my office. C. H. J. T.

Rev. William Creditt is a practical man, and a very noticeable trait of his practibilities is that every couple he joins as man and wife receives a very extraordinary sermon called: "The True Guide." The Doctor thinks that every couple entering married life should have that sermon as a guide to their future hapiness.

Editor W. Bishop Johnson, pastor of the 2nd Baptift church is making every effort to have all the pomp and glory requisite to successfully laying the corner stone some time early in September.

THEY SAY.

It is natural for boys to play,

It is not good for politicians to do a waong act.

Some men will lie and steal.

All men are not good, neither are they all honest.

When ever you make a promise don't fail to keep it.

Promises when made should be kept.

Fred Douglass is running Taylor.

Taylor must do as the old man says

Miss Williams was discharged because her brother did not consult the wind bag from Kansas.

Dr. Williams should have consulted the wind bag.

Dr. Williams is too busy to be bothered with such a bluff.

Dr. Williams has not been to see me and consult me on the hospital.

This is what the wind bag said.

Had it not been for me he never would have been appointed.

The echo of the wind bag.

"I had to drop Francis to remove Purvis, is what the Kansas bluffer said."

His occupation is gone.

A new recorder will be appointed

The Bee never lies.

Those Kansas tramps must return to their homes, and no doubt wiser than what they were before they came to this city.

You should never forget your friends.

You are furloughed or discharged Miss Williams your brother never consulted me about the hospital.

What did White do with that coat? It is warm weather now, hence it should be returned.

The wind bag's man Friday. Rev. (?) is Taylor's go between.

They will both hear something drop.

Will Geo. W. Smith hand over to the editor the box of cigars?

What has beoome of the wind bags daily?

The Bee said that he had it in his feet and not in reality.

Like Othellos' occupation it is gone.

Had I served the BEE with half the zeal I lied I would not now be left naked to my enemies.

Let us have peace or war.

Will trustee Bruce make no reforms in the High school?.

Cardoza ought to be dropped.

Trustee Bruce owes it to the people and children.

Let there be a change in the High school.

The incompetent principal should go.

Miss Benjamin should be made the health teacher.

She is experienced and qualified.

Lawyer Hewlett asserts that Patterson has deceived the people.

All the contracts are in the name of Patterson.

The Baptist Herald ought to go to sleep and give its defense of the rotten steam boat company a rest.

Stop, gentlemen Herald, stop.

Read the BEE and be happy.

THE BEE WAS ABSENT.

From the Chicago Observer.

Perhaps if the "Washington Bee" had been with Recorder Taylor he would not have been elected President. It must always depend upon the one who is "agin you.

HERE AND THERE.

Don't think you know it all because your employer happens to compliment you.

It is far better to think that you don't know so much than it is to think that you do for you often make a mistake.

Is it wise for a girl to associate with a widower who was cruel to his first wife?

It is said that if a man is cruel to his first wife, he will be a model husband o his second wife.

The wise girl will not marry a man who does not treat his own mother with respect.

Some men are under the opinion that all women are false. Such men should be scorned, for they are corrupt as sin.

Why is it that men will seek to ruin the reputation of a girl and speak evil of her?

The little dark complexioned man with the voice of a woman, had better be careful. The girls are on to him.

A gentleman will not speake ill of a woman, or put the same low estimate on all women he does on one.

Some men hate the idea of being told their deficiency by a woman.

Old maids are generally sensitive and it is a great wrong to laugh at them especially when they are trying to look their best.

Parents should not allow their daughters to visit or board during the summer until they are qualified for such an occasion.

A man is responsible for the shelter food, and for the raiment needed by wife and children.

Life would be eased of many of its hard times if there were a more thoughtful use of our possessions in providing pleasure for others.

Hospitality seems to have no place at all. The more you do for some people the more they expect of you.

Since it is true that a man is responsible for all the household affairs he must have the right of direction.

A woman is not less than her husband or beneath him in any way. It is sometimes said that the wife is the heart and the husband the head of the home.

A girl of fourteen should not wear her hair turned up and her dresses touching her feet, if so she should be discarded by girls of the same age and even older ones.

One bad woman or man can be the ruination of two dozen or more people and a wise mother should train her children accordingly.

Never allow a man to be always mending broken promises. If a man cares for a woman he will not disappoint her Marriage without love is a sin, although people oftimes commit such a sin for revenge.

A woman of refinement rather feels that she had fewer gowns than feel that she has not sufficient underwear.

It is not necessary for a hostess to look after a gentleman's overcoat. When he is old enough to call he is old enough to look after his own belongings.

MARRIAGE UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

When the young New Englanders in the early days of the Colony wished to enter the state of matrimony they did not find it any too easy work, writes Alice Morse Earle in a most valuable article on "Courtship and Marriage in Puritan Days" in the August Ladies home Journal. In the first place, no young man could "make a motion of marriage" to any young woman whose fair face, or deft fingers; or sweet di positions had attracted his fancy or his affections' without first obtaining the consent of the fair one's father or guardian to thus address her. He was liable to arrest fine or imprisonment if he spoke to her first and thus "inveigled her affections." Many a bold and headlong swain was punished for that natural offense in early days, and I doubt not many another slyly inveigled, unpunished and undiscovered, in order to find out from her own lips, the state of affections borne toward him by the one he loved. It must have been somewhat of a damper on love-making to have to make such a formal beginning, but there was no lack of marriages. Inde d, single persons were much scorned in the Puritan community. "Ancient maids" were few and much to be pitied. Bachelors were looked on with open disfavor, were not allowed to live alone, and sometimes had to pay a weekly fine to thetown as long as they remained single. With all these penalties it was plain that all would seek to marry early in life.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL
AND PHOSPHATES OF LIME, SODA, IRON.

The truly wonderful effect produced by Dr. Alexander B. Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod-Liver Oil and Phosphates renders it beyond doubt the most perfect preparation of its kind known to-day.
Consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, debility, wasting diseases and all scrofulous humors disappear under its influence. It is almost as palatable as cream. It can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who, after using it, become very fond of it. It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and appetite, builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich and pure blood, in fact, rejuvenates the whole system, flesh, blood, nerve, brain. This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of cod-liver oil; it has many imitators, but no equals. The results following its use are its best recommendations. Be sure, as you value your health, and get the genuine. Manufactured only by DR. ALEXANDER B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, Mass.

AGAINST HIS FRIENDS.

Sergeant John C. Daily's ambition to be appointed lieutenant on the Police force has lead him to do very foolish things.

When he ran against that young and brilliant district attorney Mr. James L. Pugh by publishing to the world that he was guilty of something of which no one had a knowledge but Daily he blundered.

Mr. Pugh is one of the best and highly respected members of the District bar. No man is more liked and appreciated; no man but a scoundrel would attempt to impeach his integrity. Mr. Pugh has the proud satisfaction of knowing that he has the respect and confidence of every member of the bar. No one will believe the charges against Mr. Washburn. As a matter of fact Mr. Washburn could not issue witness certificates to persons who were not entitled to them

Sergeant Dailys' hands are turned against his friends. He seems to resort to the meanest schemes to defeat his friends and build himself up.

These gentlemen have nothing to fear and it will be seen when the matter comes to be investigated.

THAT office seeking has a demoralizing affect on some people is evidenced by the spectacle made of Astwood by Taylor. Here is a man who has enjoyed one of the highest places given to negroes in the consular service; in his desire to get a job, cringing, a borrowing and allowing himself to be repeatedly insulted by a man who is his inferior morally, intellectually and physically. So thoroughly is Taylors hold on Astwood that he made him thank him at a public meeting for having lied to him in reference to his appointment to San Domingo. So great is his hold that he has made Astwood forget one of the most sacred things nessessary to a gentleman's make up, that of respecting a mans confidence. So great is his hold and his desires for the council to San Domingo is he was made to sleep in a room with five others at the convention having for his bed fellow a laborer in one of the departments. All this to get office,

THE false charges that were filed against Mr. C. L. Barnes with the Commissioner of Pensions were to the effect that the BEE had opposed the administration all the summer. This is not true as will be seen by the BEE's support of Mr. Taylor for the recordership. No paper has a higher opinion of Mr. Cleveland than the BEE and whenever he has seen fit to appoint a decent colored man the BEE has always supported him. It was the BEE that championed the cause of Matthews of Albany a gentleman and a scholar. He was too much of a gentleman to be confirmed. It was the republican Senate that opposed and defeated him. It was the BEE that opposed the Senate.

The President has done everything in his power to recognize the negro, and the only negro in which he has been deceived is C. H. J. Taylor. He has been a disgrace to the administration and embarassing to the District democracy and the race he represents.

KEEPING UP MANNINGS SPIRIT.

From the Indianapolis Journal.

A. E. Manning of the country clerk's office, is sitting up late of nights and entertaining and escorting visitors about the city. Manning is an applicant for appointment as Minister to Liberia and is led to believe that he will receive the appointment. Taylor, who assumes to know just what the President intends to do for several weeks in advance, has brought him assurance that he will be nominated in a few days and the nomination sent to the Senate. This is serving the purpose for which it was intended and is making Manning very enthusiastic about this time.

The BEE would be pleased if Mr. Manning is appointed to the position he seeks but, he will not be. This is a pointer. The BEE is friendly to Mr. Manning.

THE INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION.

THE MEETING OF THE CLANS.—WHAT THE BEE'S SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT SAW AND HEARD. TAYLOR WINKED HIS EYES.

Indianapolis, Aug. 16th, '94.
(Special to the BEE.)

The Negro Democratic League convention is a thing of the past. C. H. J. Taylor had stated that all delegates of the district were to be his guests during his stay in Indianapolis and that they would leave here in a private car at his expense. The party, which was composed of Taylor, Astwood, McLauren Curtis and Koonce took a sleeper at their own expense, for Cincinnati Sunday at 12 o'clock noon. Curtis and Knoonce supplying the lunches and whiskey. Although Taylor and Astwood claimed that they had a private car it has been proven to be a falsehood pure and simple. I should have thought that Taylors' present position and Astwoods' previous one, would preclude them at least from travelling as they did. They were on one of the C. & O best equipped trains with all conveniences, yet they spread a chicken and whiskey lunch on the seats and enjoyed themselves like a party of Negro camp meeting excursionists going on a 10 miles trip with grub enough to satisfy a regiment all to be eaten before the train arrived. When they arrived at Cincinnati the delegates private car was switched off and they were compelled to take an ordinary car for Indianapolis. Arriving at the city they were met at the depot by Mr. Manning the only representative of the Indiana democracy who meterialized during the convention. The Accidental was made the League Headquarters each delegate paying his own expense. Mr. Barnes a regular elected delegate to the convention and representative of the BEE reached the city at 7 o'clock. After registration and being shown to a room adjourning Taylors party; word was sent to the room that his proximity to Taylors party was distasteful to the "Zar" and that he would be given another location. After arranging toilet for dinner Barnes inquired as to the trouble and was told that Taylor had informed the proprietor that the representative of the WATHINGTON BEE, (Barnes) and himself could not occupy the same Hotel. The proprietor informed him, that while he would be sorry to loose such a dignified (?) personage as himself and party that it would be imposible to eject Mr. Barnes. On a second thought Taylor concluded that he could exist in the same Hotel. Monday night Taylor held a caucus in a room over a saloon, supposed to be the State League headquarters. White acted as doorkeeper, Astwood as chairman, naturally Taylor was unanimously re-elected president of the League. After Taylor had seen that every man voted yea, he had the delicacy to leave the room and walk over to the hotel where Mr. Barnes who was excluded from the caucus) was lounging on the portico and and while waiting for the committee to come over and inform him of his election, he used his eloquent tongue in trying to persuade Barnes to retract an article published in the "News" of the 11th instant. Barnes refusing, he then informed him that he was going to have a car load of Kansas goats to come down on Tuesday, who would make it so hot for him that he would have to leave. This did not have the desired affect. Barnes was then given to understand that this was Taylors convention and that he would not be admitted as there would be beautiful red badges and red tickets given to each delegate and that he (Barnes) would not get any, consequently he could not get in to the convention as the doors would be locked and guarded by two big Kansas negroes with guns. True to his word the pretty red badges and tickets were given out, the doors were locked and guarded as stated. On Tuesday morning day of convention 26 delegates materialized. Convention was called to order at noon. Manning made an address of welcome, this being a good chance to tell who Manning was and what he had done, he started right in by welcoming the delegates to his town and then gave them a complete history of his life (omitting a little incident that occured before he left Washington for the Wooly West) He told them what his furniture cost, his houses, his clothes and in fact he told them everything except what he did with the eighteen hundred dollars raised to pay expenses and entertaing the delegates, all this was omitted. Finally becoming exhausted and not being posted on any other topic other than self he sat down. Astwood then read an address prepared by Taylor and was applauded at prescribed intervals by Curtis who was assigned to the duty of furnishing applause, he having a front seat where he could see Taylors eye. Where one eye winked, moderate applause, both eyes winked, vigorous applause, shake of the head prolonged and vigorous applause. Curtis filled his duties well during the first part of the convention, but feeling ill from the effects of indulging in lemonade at the caucus the night before (he being a Baptist and a democrat he has always drank the stick and left the lemonade to republicans and Methodists to drink.) he was unable to watch his masters eye thereby getting his applause in at the wrong time; he was saved from utter disgrace by an adjournment. The evening session was free for all this permitted our representative to be present. Still, Astwood, had a good old time campmeeting speaker by the name of Atwater (it was remarked by some one that he looked like he spent most of his time at whiskey), were to be the speakers. There were 29 persons present in all, 26 delegates, 3 colored newspaper men. Astwood was the first speaker, his speech consisted of the landing of the fearless (?) leader, (Taylor), rehearsing current political events and denying Miss Ida B. Wells' assertions that negroes were unjustly yutraged in the South. About the time he was winding up his peroration on Taylor. Mr. R. G. Still who had spent two hours time and two dollars in whiskey on his speech came sauntering into the hall. Astwood skipped, two lines. Taylor gave the wrong sign to curtis who set up a vigorous and prolonged applause, this making it appear that still was the recipitent of this wonderful ovation. This state of affairs had been brought about by Still stopping to whisper to Barnes. Taylor being satisfied that Barnes had ev. designs on the meeting shook his head, winked both eyes and Curtis jumped on both feet stamped on the floor clapped both hands and yelled Hurrah for Taylor, the spell was broken and Still looked up. Astwood seeing that Taylor expected something of him shook his manuscript over his head and yelled Taylor first and all the time. This so startled secretary Koonce that he knocked the ink bottle over, spilling the ink on Whites shirt. (the only shirt he had with him) who was in the act of passing a drink of water up to Taylor. Still finally reached the stage, the meeting assuming the equilibrum. Astwood started his peroration all over finally finishing. Still was next introduced. During Stills talk there was no winking of both eyes or shaking of head on Taylors part; consequently nothing but moderate applauses were given by Curtis. Barnes and Howard of Penn., seeing that the keystone states' reputation was at stake cut in at regular intervals with vigorous and prolonged applause. This being distasteful to Taylor he sent word to Howard that he must restrain Barnes or he'd have to go out, our applauses was moderate after this hint. Still finished and and the Rev. Atwater was introduced from a force of habit. He picked up a dictionary which Secr Koonce had for reference and started to give out his text. Taylor winked at Curtis who started an applause, this brought the R v. gentleman to himself, In the midst of his speech Taylor arose and stated that the meeting was dismissed.

OUR FLAG INSULTED.

Trampled Under Foot and the British Flag Hoisted in Its Place.

London, Aug. 15.—A dispatch to the Times from Port Limon, Costa Rica, dated August 12, says: "The British cruiser Mohawk has arrived here from the Mosquito country with Chief Clarence and 112 refugees aboard. Bluefields was retaken by 2,000 Nicaraguans, who arrived from Rama and Greytown aboard transports flying the United States flag.

The American marines re-embarked on their approach, abandoning the American residents, many of whom removed the national flag from their houses, trampled upon it, and hoisted the British flag. The Nicaraguan officials, on entering the government house, hauled down and tore into shreds the Mosquito flag and arrested numerous Americans and Jamaicans suspected of sympathizing with Chief Clarence. Capt. Stewart, of the Mohawk, went into the prison and rescued all who were willing to claim British protection. The Mohawk remains at Port Limon awaiting orders from Great Britain. Chief Clarence is still aboard the Mohawk."

LIQUOR DEALERS.

What the Wine and Spirit Gazette Says About Mgr. Satolli's Views.

New York, Aug. 15.—The Wine and Spirit Gazette says: "A careful survey of the whole field justifies us in stating that Mgr. Satolli's views of the relation between liquor dealers and the church are not likely to be carried out by the bishops in the cities of the country. We predicted such result in our issue of July 25. The full discussion which the whole matter has received in the press has been the means of disclosing to the dignitaries of the church a great light. Archbishops and bishops have publicly declared their intention of ignoring Mgr. Satolli's admonitions. The result is a great triumph for the cause of personal liberty.

Millions of Gallons of Whiskey.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Reports received at the treasury department, from whiskey-producing centres, state there is a great rush to take whiskey out of bond at the old rate of ninety cents a gallon before the new tax, $1.10 per gallon, becomes operative. At most of the large distilleries whiskey in bond has already been gauged, ready upon payment of the tax, to be withdrawn. A conservative estimate places the amount of whiskey in bond at 60,000,000 gallons.

Raising the Price of Whiskey.

Peoria, Ill. Aug. 15.—The Distilling and Cattle Feed Company has advanced prices three cents all around. This increase is expected to continue till the tariff law goes into effect.

EUROPE TO TAKE A HAND.

Rumors That the Powers Will Demand That Corea be Let Alone.

London, Aug. 14.—It is rumored in St. Petersburg that England intends to propose that the powers co-operate in demanding that both China and Japan withdraw their forces from Corea forthwith, and intrust the Government of the peninsula to an international conference.

The rumor is the subject of much comment. The opinion is general that Russia would never consent to such a proposition. She prefers to let events take their course while her interests are not menaced.

The Vienna correspondent of the News says that England, France and Russia have agreed not to tolerate an attack on Pekin. Their respective squadrons have been instructed to interfere if the Japanese attack Taku.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says that a strong Chinese fleet has left the coast. The impression in Shanghai is that this fleet will seek to intercept the transports which are carrying Japanese troops to Corea.

There were only a few ironclads among the Japanese vessels that attacked Port Arthur and Wei-Hai-Wei. Most of the fleets were merchantmen which had been converted hastily into cruisers and were carrying troops for work ashore. What has become of the Japanese fleet since the morning of the 11th nobody in Shanghai has heard.

There is considerable apprehension along the Chinese coast of the Yellow Sea, and small steam vessels are scouting constantly, but no view of the hostile squadron was obtained either yesterday or to-day.

The Chinese were alarmed greatly by the attack on Wei-Hai-Wei. More submarine mines have been laid before Taku and Wei-Hai-Wei.

The British war ship Mercury left Chee-Foo at noon on Saturday for Wei-Hai-Wei to protect the foreigners at the latter port.

Many of the buoys along the Chinese coast, most notably in the neighborhood of the threatened ports, have been removed.

"DEFENCE NO DEFIANCE."

Anarchist Mowbray and His Howlings at Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 14.—Abaut 200 people attended Oertel's Park last night to hear William A. Mowbray, the English Anarchist. Mowbray plunged at once into an address on "How shall we organize," He said that labor organizations were a power but must be reckoned with the politicians.

"And still the laboring men inscribe on their banners, 'Defense, No Defiance.' How good they are to let the juggernaut run over them! But then there will be a kick some day, and when the Anglo-Saxons kick they kick hard.

"Then the capitalstic press will howl for gatling guns to shoot down the poor. I have seen shooting galleries. Why dont you procure guns and learn to shoot? There is no law against that. Gens. Wallace and Schofield have said 'Shoot to kill.' So I would say, too, 'Shoot to kill,' but if you can't kill don't shoot.

"Twenty-five thousand laboring men have to work to pay the expenses of the Earl of Dudley and his mistress. The wine the rich drink in their gilded salons is the blood of your children with which they quench their abominable thirst. So are all the luxuries of the rich at the expense and degradation of the working poor."

THE TARIFF.

The Senate Bill is Passed in the House.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The House passed the Senate tariff bill last night in accordance with the determination of the Democratic caucus. The "trust" Senators have won for the time being. Their schedule was adopted in spite of the statements that the House would never surrender. Rather than see all tariff legislation defeated the House passed the Senate bill by a vote of 182 to 105. Then there were four new bills introduced, passed without being referred to any committee and sent to the Senate. The first provided for free sugar and was passed 276 to 11; the next for free coal, 180 to 104; free iron ore, 163 to 102, and free barbed wire, 187 to 84.

Two hours debate was allowed on the question, shall the Senate amendments be agreed to? and several start speeches were made. Mr. Cockran made a bitter speech, and Mr. Reed grew sarcastic as usual. Mr. Wilson made an explanatory speech and then the vote was taken. After the announcement of the result, Mr. Wilson sent up the four other bills which were passed and at 10:25 the House adjourned.

HE WANTS MONEY.

Prince Von Birstein Looking for a Wife to Recuperate His Fortunes.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 14.—Prince Isenberg von Birsten, whose reported engagement to Miss Florence, daughter of George M. Pullman, was much talked of last summer, has just called to several intimate friends here, including the Havemeyers, that he is soon to marry a young Englishwoman of considerable wealth. The Prince, who is a great-great-grandnephew of Marie Antoinette, is the owner of thirty palaces more or less, many of which are in need of thorough overhauling. It is the gossip here that he was once, and not so very long ago, an aspirant for the hand of Miss Annie Gould.

A lady who went travelling last week on her return to the station in Baltimore, Md., asked the station keeper what time the train left for Baltimore. The station keeper looked at her in amazement. The BEE is of the opinion that the lady is sentimentally inclined. She has a number of admirers and no doubt she was endeavoring to select a suitor

Miss M. H. Adams took a flying trip to Mt. Washington, Md., last week to visit her mother. She returned by the way of Baltimore and arrived in town Monday morning.

Owing to the unfair advantages taken of C. L. Barnes in connections with the BEE by Taylor and Astwood, they using this as a reason to ask for Mr. Barnes' removal from his place in the Pension office Mr. Barnes' friends deeming it best that he should withdraw from the BEE has defered to their judgement by severing his connections with this paper, with the respect of the editor.

The Barotti

There will be numerous attractions besides excellent musical and literary programme has been arranged for each evening, dancing etc. U. S. Maride Band will be in attendance. Friends are cordially invited to assist in these festivities.

ASTWOOD THE FOREIGNER.

H. C. C. Astwood accompanied by Rev. (?) P. H. White called at the Pension office on Monday and asked that the manager of the BEE, Mr. Charles Barnes be dismissed, because as they alleged that Mr. Barnes was making a fight against the organized negro democracy. This is false. Mr. Barnes has said nothing against the negro who wants to be a democrat as he is a democrat himself and the editor is a republican.

The fight of the BEE is against the corrupt men being retained in office and such men who are morally unfit to hold a public office.

Astwood is the man against whom charges was made some time ago by Mr. Charles R. Douglass and who was also charged with having given a lady school teacher of this city 70 dollars to accompany him to San Domingo to become the governess in the house of the president of that place. The lady in question is now a teacher in the public schools of this city and she was advised not to go as the president was a corrupt official as well as the man who wanted her to go.

Mr. Barnes had been summoned by the Civil Service Commission to testify against the present recorder of deeds.

R. D. RUFFIN ARRESTED.

Charged With False Pretenses.

Robert D. Ruffin, a real estate dealer of this city was arrested on Tuesday evening on a warrant sworn out by Thomas Clark from whom he bought goods and gave a bogus check on the Capital Savings Bank in which he had no funds. It was testified that Ruffin had gone to this store and purchased some groceries and gave a check and at the same time said the check was good. When Mr. Clark presented the check to the paying teller, Mr. Cliff Johnson, he told him that Ruffin had no account there.

Ruffin was committed to jail in default of 300 dollars bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Guilty as Indicted

The Civil Service Commission has found Charles H. J. Taylor guilty of the charges prefered by the BEE. President Cleveland will now act and remove the man who has been a disgrace to the race and a stumbling block to the colored democracy.

HAPPY BILL.

The happy aed genial Bill Brooker returned to the city Tuesday morning with his victorious base ball club which defeated the Richmond base ball club by a score of 15 to 6. It was a happy day for Bill and there is no doubt that he returned with a full pocket and a flush hand.

CONTROLLER OF JOBS.

C. H. J. TAYLOR BOASTS OF HIS HOLD ON PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

NO NEGRO APPOINTED WITHOUT BACKING OF RECORDER OF DEEDS. DEMOCRATIC NEGROES' LEAGUE.

From the Indianapolis Journal,

C.H. J. Taylor, of Washington, president of the National Colored Democratic League, is in this city to preside over the convention of the league to be held in this city. Incidently, Mr. Taylor is telling of his "flooence" with the administration. His influence is something wonderful, and woe betide the one who wants a Democratic appointment if he does not see Mr. Taylor and elicit his support before seeking it. Mr. Taylor says that President Cleveland never appointed a colored man without asking his advice. The session of the league will begin at noon each day, "just like the Senate," says Mr Taylor. They will also hold night sessions.

Taylor says that thirty five states will be represented in the convention. A. E. Manning, president of the Indianapolis branch of the league, will open the convention to-day by an address of welcome. Immediately afterward President Taylor will deliver his annual address. Committees are to be appointed to-day to visit Governor Matthews and Thomas Taggart, of the Democratic State committee. The delegates desire to visit the executive parlors of the Democratic state convention at opportune times. President Taylor says that at this convention a plan is to be perfected by which the organization will be able to furnish a list of every colored Democratic voter in the United States.

Among the delegates already arrived are: H. C. Astwood, of New York, ex-consul-general to San Domingo; W. M. McClaron, of Alabama; C. C. Curtis, of Iowa; E. L. Dawkins, of Florida; William A. Crostwait, of Tennessee; John L. Foster, of Tennessee; P. Hampton White, of New York; Will-E. Gross, of New York; E. A. Randolph, of Virginia; L. W. Pulies of Nevada; Thomas H. Flynn, of Nevada; U. K. Alams, of Alabama. A. W. Powell, of Alabama, and A. W. Atwater of Alabama

HON. R. C. O. BENJAMIN L. L. D.

AUTHOR, POET, JOURNALIST, LAWYER AND CLERGYMAN.

From the Dow n Town Record.

This distinguished gentleman is now visiting Philadelphia, lecturing and preaching in the various churches. As an author, lecturer and journalist, Dr. Benjamin is classed among the foremost men of the negro race. In vindication of their rights and setting forth their progress since emancipation, he has written fourteen different works, his latest being "Southern Outrages," giving the history, date, etc., of every negro that has been lynched in the South since 1865 up to the present time.

Last Sabbath morning Dr. Benjamin filled the pulpit of Bainbridge Street M. D. church. At night he preached for Rev. Dr. Stitt at Zion Wesley. The crowds at each place were immense and the discourse eloquent, masterly and soul-stirring. Monday evening Benjamin lectured at Zion Wesley on "Fools and other Folks." The lecture was Witty, humorous and scholarly, exhibiting learning and deep research into every phase of human nature. He also lectured at Bainbridge street M. E church Wednesday evening, subject: "Southern Outrages." His lectures are every where applauded and hailed with delight, and well they might, for it appears that no living negro can so eloquently and vividly portray the wrongs inflicted upon the race.

Mr, Benjamin has the honor to represent the educational work of the A. M. E. Zion church, and is also secretary of the Colored Lawyers National Bar Association of the United States.

Mr. Benjamin is the guest of the well known Dr. B. Andrew Franklin,

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

LOW TARRIF.

Was the Decision of the Democratic Caucus—Senate Bill to Pass.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The passage of a low tariff bill is now assured. At the Democrat caucus this morning the Crisp resolution to accept the Senate bill was adopted by a vote of 130 to 21.

Speaker Crisp's resolution was that the House should recede from its position and accept the Senate bill. The resolution also includes a provision placing barbed wire, sugar, coal and iron ore on the free list by a series of separate bills.

One hundred and fifty-three members were present at the caucus when Chairman Holman called it to order. Mr. Wilson took the floor, evidently laboring under deep emotion. He devoted the opening portion of his speech to making explanations of the embarrassments under which the House labored. That they failed to reach a satisfactory conclusion, honorable alike to the House and the Democratic party was not their fault. He made the startling statement on the authority of a leading Democraic Senator that the trust had bought $112,000,000 worth of sugar in foreign markets in anticipation of the Senate schedule receiving the approval of the President. This will result in a profit of $40,000,000. His declaration that "the Sugar Trust has the people by the throat," and that it was now "a battle between the people and the trust," received hearty applause.

Speaker Crisp followed. He began by saying the House must take the Senate bill. He moved that the House recede from its position and accept the Senate bill, which motion was carried.

THE PERILS OF THE RAIL.

A Freight and a Light Engine Collide Near Buffalo.

Buffalo, Aug. 13.—A collision occurred at 6:30 this morning between a Lehigh Valley freight train and a Buffalo Creek railroad locomotive, which was running light. Both locomotives were badly damaged, and two freight cars and an oil tank car ditched. Three men were injured. The accident occurred at the Elk street crossing of the Buffalo Creek railroad, over which the Lehigh train was being switched to the Nickel Plate tracks, when the light engine crashed into it. The injured men were employed in the railroad shops, and were riding to their work on a freight train. Their names are John Sulkeries, leg crushed, had to be amputated; Michael Fisher, four ribs and right arm broken; Tony Janoski, injured internally.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 13.—Tom, the twelve-year-old son of Thomas Dickinson, of Pendleton, saved a score of lives last night. A passenger train was side-tracked at this city waiting for a fast freight to pass. By some oversight, the switch was left open. Tom, who was playing near by, noticed it was open. He took in the situation, grabbed the handle, and when the engine was less than fifty feet away, threw the switch. The next instant the freight train rumbled past the passenger coaches. As the freight train was going at a high rate of speed, a wreck would have been terrible.
